
Of the $7.5 million in withdrawals so far this year, $210,000 are COVID -19 related.